THE PRIMER EDITION

OF THE

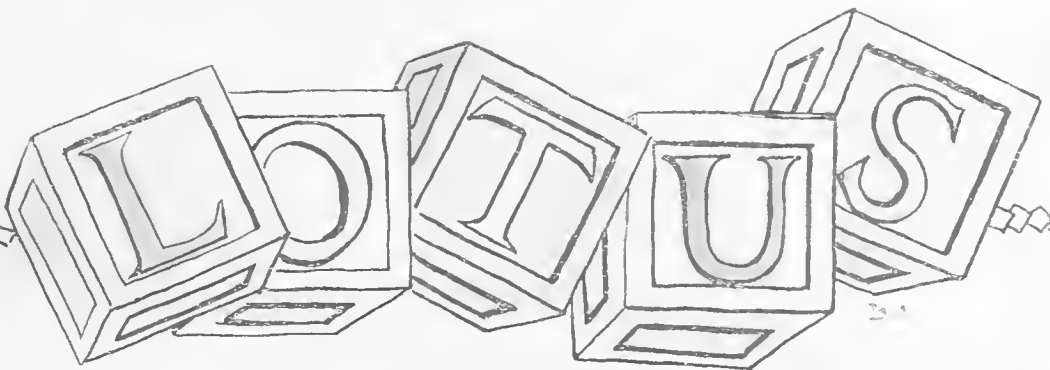

LOTUS

V. Lecco
L. S. 1872

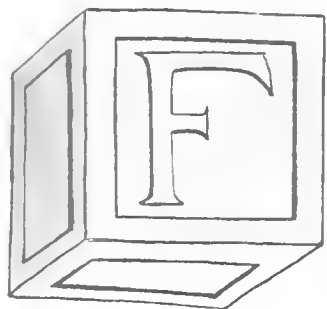

The Forty-one

Published by the Students of Peace College, Raleigh, N. C.

And this is our

OREWORD

Every child loves his first book; it is simple and clear and has interesting and beautiful illustrations. Even as we now look back with affection and fond memories on our first book, may we cherish this, the Primer Edition of THE LOTUS, with the same sincere enjoyment of reliving happy days.

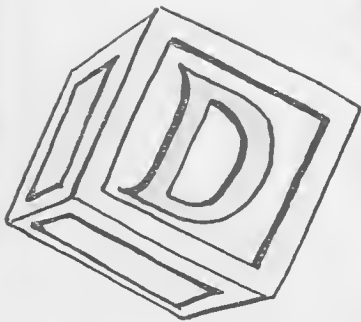

Karl J. Hudson

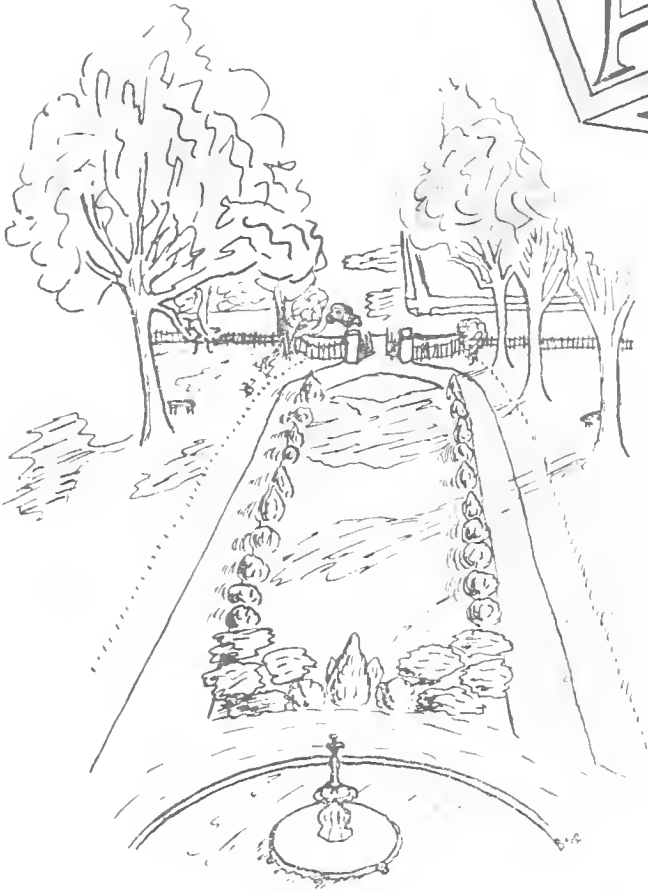

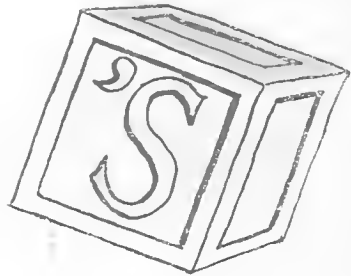

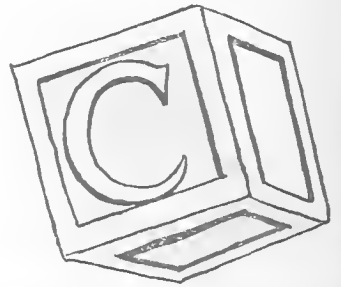

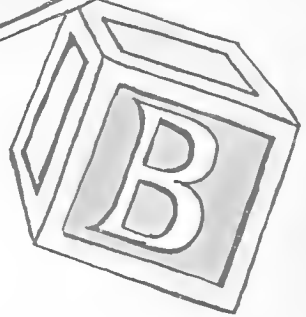

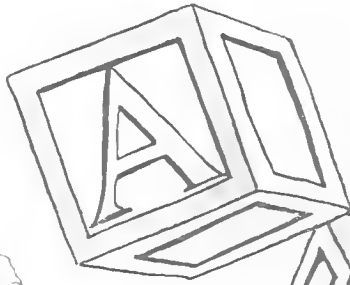

IS FOR

DEDICATION

To one who has been responsible for many of our gains;
To one who has directed many of our activities from behind the scenes;
To the President of our Board of Trustees, Mr. Karl J. Hudson, we, with grateful hearts, dedicate THE LOTUS of 1941.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student government of the school is planned and executed by a group of girls who have been selected by the students themselves. This group, known as the Student Council, meets weekly to consider and act upon the problems of the students. It is also in charge of editing and distributing the Student Handbook. During Orientation Week the council members try to help each new girl find her place as a member of the student body. The Student Council also sponsors social activities, the chief of these being the Student Body Reception which is one of the traditions of Peace.

DAY STUDENT COUNCIL

BLANCHE HUDSON
President

The Day Student Council is an important organization in promoting closer relationships between the boarding and day students. It meets every two weeks to discuss the problems of the day students, and during Orientation Week it plays an important part in helping each student to adjust herself to her new surroundings. The council also plans social events to draw the boarding and day students into a greater unity.

Pressly, M. Parker, Hudson, Lewis, Wedding

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

ELIZABETH JONES
President

The religious activities of the school, while concerned with all phases of school life, are centered in the Peace Student Christian Association. Each Peace girl is a member and is given the opportunity of assuming many responsibilities in the carrying out of the work of the organization. The party given at the beginning of the year for the new girls, the gatherings in the P.S.C.A. Hut, the regular Sunday night services, and the morning watch services are all sponsored by the P.S.C.A. and directed by some of its members. Every fourth Sunday night a speaker is invited to lead the vesper service. To make Christ more real on our campus is the aim of the P.S.C.A.

Peace would not be complete without the Sigma Phi Kappa Literary Society, for this organization is almost as old as the school itself. The society is proud of its traditions, but it is prouder still of having retained its high standing throughout the years.

*Sigs, loyal Sigs,
We sing to you right now,
With hearts of praise,
With hearts of praise:
Much we pledge you,
We will never break a vow,
And our voices we raise
In the never ceasing song
That thrills the throng.
We love you truly Sigs.*

For thirty-five years Pi Theta Mu has had a fine influence on the lives of Peace girls. The society was the first to win the loving cup presented annually in the Society Night Dramatics contest for the best performance of a one act play. The competition for this cup is keen. No society has been able to keep it more than two years.

PHI THETA KAPPA

Phi Theta Kappa is the national honor society for junior colleges, functioning in the junior college as Phi Beta Kappa does in the four-year college.

The Gamma Phi Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa was established at Peace in 1939. Its members are chosen because of their superior scholarship, character, and leadership. The sponsor is Miss Richards.

SIGMA PI ALPHA

Sigma Pi Alpha is a national honorary language fraternity in which membership is obtained by invitation after a student has excelled in a particular language.

The Theta Chapter of this organization was first established at Peace on May 5, 1939, and at that time Peace was the only junior college with the distinction of having a chapter. Miss Raynor is the sponsor.

GRANDDAUGHTERS' CLUB

The sole condition of membership in the Granddaughters' Club is that a parent or grandparent be an alumna of Peace. These girls are the ones who, as a group, carry on the traditions of the college. Members are: Marguerite Gaskin, daughter of Maggie Vinson; Peggy Gattis, daughter of Phillip Gattis; Jane Henry, daughter of Rina Richardson; Blanche Hudson, daughter of Mary White; Dale Marks, daughter of Mary Emily Ruffin; Nancy McCauley, daughter of Nannie Conn; Helen McLendon, granddaughter of Sarah Polk; Frances Pound, daughter of Frances Smoot; Winifred Rose, daughter of Ruth Sanders; Sophie Vass, daughter of Frances Sharp; Jane Walter, daughter of Sallie Margaret Johnson; and Sidney Ann Wilson, daughter of Elsie Stockard; Laura Ayers, daughter of Laura Stedman.

This book was made for you—to play with now and dream over in years to come. In it we give you the school—Peace—and its activities. May you find here a sturdy limb on which to hang your leaves of remembrances. . . .

Great thanks is due to Dr. Prossly, who has taken the time from his many duties to aid in details, and to Mrs. Worth, whose encouragement and help was invaluable.

May I express my appreciation to a most willing staff of workers: Ann McCorkle, Lib Jones, Helen Broughton, and Sarah Prevatte, Associate Editors; Pat Addington, Kay Bisceglia, Marjorie Luck, and Fran Rainey, Assistant Editors. Also to the Business Staff headed by Blanche Hudson and Margaret MacKenzie, who under the guiding hand of Miss Kirkpatrick, have done a thorough job. And to Vivian Cobb, who has taken charge of all the typing.

The art of this issue deserves special mention—to Rebecca Switzer, our art editor, goes the credit for overseeing the work; and to Florence Crane and Anne Cunningham for the drawings. We are equally grateful to Miss Pugh and the entire art department for the handpainting in the opening section and on the division sheets.

May you enjoy the result as much as we did the work.

The Papyrus Club is an organization composed of a group of juniors and seniors who, being interested in creative writing, were selected for membership from the school at large.

Since the fall of 1936, when the club was first organized, the student publication The Voices of Peace, which heretofore had been published by the societies, was adopted by the club as its special project.

The purpose of the club is to encourage interest in creative writing and to publish The Voices of Peace. The club is fortunate to have as its supervisor the head of the English Department, Miss Helen Salls.

THE PENNY PLAYERS

The Penny Players is the dramatic club organized in 1936 for those girls interested in acting. At the beginning of this year the club presented two one act plays, "A Dish of China Tea" and "Consolation." Throughout the year the members of the club gain experience in platform reading of scenes from current Broadway plays and in the art of applying make-up.

DEES CAMERA CLUB

Organized in 1933 by Miss Georgia Dees, the Dees Camera Club has for the past three years offered a chance for girls interested in photography to get together. From time to time more equipment for developing and printing pictures has been added and books on photography have been given the library. Many of the snapshots for the Annual were taken by members of this club.

Miss Currie: What do you understand by the word "deficit"?
N. Cuddle: It's what you have when you haven't as much as you had when you had nothing.

Helen B.: What does a tortoise look like?
P. L. J.: Why, a tortoise, of course!

You've heard what the two little fleas planned to do when they got married—save up their money and buy a dog.

Miss McLelland (at box office getting tickets for the football game): I want two on the fifty-yard dash.

Dr. Pressly and Miss McLelland were standing on the porch of Miss McLelland's home discussing various and sundry students. Suddenly it began to rain, and they retreated into the chemistry lab to finish their discussion. Dr. P.: Let's send one of these girls after an umbrella. Miss McL.: A very good idea. Pat will go. Pat: Love to. Will you hold this amoeba for me? Dr. P.: Certainly. Hours pass. Dr. Pressly and Miss McLelland wait patiently. Dr. P.: Let's put this thing down and go. Miss McL.: A very good idea. Pat (sticking her head in the door): If you put my amoeba down I won't even start!

Eddie Reed: Well, I did my good deed today.

Winifred Rose: What's that?

Eddie: I was downtown, and I chased my hat when it blew down the middle of the street.

Teague: What make is your new car?
Jordan: My brother said something about its being a wow.

Keith: What did you think of Venice?

Belle: Venice? Oh, there was a flood on there so we didn't leave the station.

Miss L. Currie: If there are any dumb-bells in the room, please rise.
Pause. Jessie rises slowly.
Miss C.: Well, Miss Newbold, do you consider yourself a dumb-bell?
Jessie: Not exactly, but I hate to see you standing alone.

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the staff in creating their vision into material form.

Such cooperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete cooperation, we offer unexcelled service.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.

Correspondence is invited

Alma Mater

*In the heart of Carolina,
'Neath its skies of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view,
Classic in her broad proportions,
Looks she proudly down—
Reared against the arch of heaven,
With the stars for crown.*

CHORUS

*Lift the chorus, speed it onward;
Let it never cease;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Hail, all hail to Peace!*

*Clambering o'er the wall and columns
Historic ties twine,
As pure love and tenderest memory
In our hearts enshrine
Days of toil and days of pleasure,
Happiness and joy
Hardship, struggles without measure,
Days without alloy.*

*Honored be our Alma Mater,
Honored for her past;
Honored in the living present,
Let her honors last!
Long as time shall tell the story,
Long as hearts are true,
May her name be crowned with glory
And honors ever new!*

MISS NANNIE DINWIDDIE.
